

From the St. Louis Union.
A Large and Daring Robbery.
SAVANNAH, Mo., June 24th, 1851.
Capt. R. Phillips:—A bold robbery was perpetrated in this town on the 19th inst. of a large amount, which has created considerable excitement. A gentleman by the name of Stalup, doing business as a merchant tailor—an estimable and honest man, had his dwelling house entered by the back way, about midnight, while himself and family were asleep, and a trunk taken out of the house, broken open and robbed of three thousand six hundred dollars, in gold and paper money, besides other valuable papers. The trunk was found in the morning in the garden, opened, and the contents, with the exception of a few gold coins, which had been hastily dropped by the rogue or rogues, all gone! Mr. Stalup had just completed his arrangement to start to St. Louis, and by this misfortune feels himself utterly ruined. No clue, as yet to the robber. The general impression is that it must have been committed by some one well acquainted with the premises.
The cholera is prevailing at Weston, and St. Joseph, but our town is as yet, unusually healthy.

In haste, C. F. H.

Eighteen years ago there was not a mile of railway leading out of Boston; but at the present time the metropolis of New England has a railway communication with the States adjoining Massachusetts measuring, in various directions, 4,259 miles in length. The number of miles of railway in the United States at the present time is about 10,000; the number of miles in Great Britain, 6,284; in France, 1,834; in Belgium, 350; in Germany, 4,542. The number of miles of railway in Massachusetts, is 1,142; if we add to this the portion of other roads lying in Massachusetts, and deduct from that total the portions of the road lying within the limits of the adjoining States, it will leave the sum of 1,047 miles of railway within the geographical limits of Massachusetts. The State has a geographical surface of 7,500 square miles; there is, therefore, over one mile of railway to each seven square miles for her surface.

PROGRESS OF THE NEW COSTUME.—The new costume for ladies appears destined to work a revolution in New England, at least. In Boston when they do get hold of a new "fashion" they pursue it with a fanatical energy. A writer in the Traveller, there, tells of meeting of "seven ladies clad in the new costume," in the course of a short walk in Washington street, and the Journal and the Traveller are also in the vanguard of the new rig. The Bloomerism is evidently in the ascendant. From every quarter we hear of ladies who have had the courage—some call it the manliness—to assume the new dress. As a general thing these are isolated cases—being only here and there, in any community, that a lady is willing to run the gauntlet of prejudice and gaping curiosity—an ordeal to which the adoption of any material change in costume is necessarily exposed. Lowell, however, we are credibly informed, is rapidly becoming a perfect Bloomerdom; and already the new dress is the ruling fashion. A gentleman who was in the city of spindles and spinsters, yesterday, informs us, upon his honor as a bachelor, that he saw as many as fifty very pretty ladies adorned with the Bloomer costume. And the dress-makers there, as our informant learned, are so overrun with business that orders have necessarily to be given some time in advance. One hatter had sold, within a few days, as many as two hundred of the Bloomer hats.

Five of the most lovely and pleasing belles of Somerville, Mass., had also publicly appeared in the new costume. Meanwhile, the Bloomers are not having it all their own way in the "literary emporium." They are burlusquing the thing at the theatres—Miss Anna Cruise representing the veritable "Mrs. Bloomer," Mrs. Prior taking the part of the renowned "Mrs. Swinburn," and Mrs. Vincent that of the excellent "Mrs. Partington." In New York, Brougham is about to bring out a similar piece.—[Balt. Sun.]

CAPTAIN WALDO.—The Warsaw Democratic Review contains a letter signed by Mr. James E. Barkley and six other citizens which emphatically contradicts the charges which have been rumored against Capt. Waldo in connection with his relief to suffering emigrants. The writers say they know him personally, and some of them went out with him on the occasion referred to. They speak in the most exalted terms of his philanthropy and large sacrifices to the cause of humanity.

Within the last fourteen months, Capt. Wilson, the commander of the Empire City, has brought into the city of New York twelve million three hundred and forty thousand dollars in gold. That is an average of about one million a trip.

The Rio Grande City.—The correspondent of the N. O. True Delta, gives terrible details of robberies and murders committed by a band of Seminoles infesting that neighborhood. On the whole line of the Rio Grande, violence, crime and bloodshed are of every day occurrence. Thanks to the inefficiency of the President and his Secretary at War,

The Chicago Tribune is down upon Mr. Wyman, of St. Louis, for refusing his Hall for the use of the Hutchinsons, to sing their abolition songs. The Tribune speaks in a menacing and threatening manner—says "Mr. Wyman is a Massachusetts man. When a Yankee falls he sinks deep. Plummet line cannot reach him. We know enough of the people of St. Louis to assure Mr. Wyman, that this closing of his doors against the Hutchinsons, will prove an unprofitable speculation for him."

This is the coolest impudence yet. How saucy and arrogant will the abolitionists become?—Is a man to be thus threatened and reviled, because he does not choose to give his house to a pack of blackguards, to blackmail and abuse him and the institutions of his State?

An obscene piece called "The Bloomers" was presented at the Varieties theatre, in New Orleans, on the 19th inst. The True Delta says it abounds in gross allusions.

Father Matthew has administered the pledge, since he arrived in Cincinnati, to two thousand eight hundred persons.

There will be a great scarcity of sugar this fall. The sugar crop is very poor.

Counterfeits of the gold dollar are in circulation at Zanesville. The Courier says they are well calculated to deceive, though lighter than the genuine.

A paper called the Southern Standard, has been established at Charleston, S. C., to oppose secession, and advocate a southern confederacy.

Mrs. Fillmore is at Toledo, Ohio, on a visit to some friends.

Hon. HENRY A. WISE.—It is reported and believed at Alexandria that this gentleman is soon to remove to that city, to make it his future home.

Ex-Governor John C. Edwards is a candidate for Mayor of Stockton, California.

George Thompson, the British libeller of American institutions, in a recent speech in Boston, before the Abolition Society, denounced the American Colonization Society, as the spawn of two abominations—the church and the devil.

Jenny Lind refuses to sing for the Hamble Festival in New York. Mr. Le Grand Smith, in his note to the committee, intimates that she is surrounded by influences which do not allow her to know the state of the case always.

The York Express, of the 14th inst., says that passengers are now travelling from New York to Cincinnati, on the Erie Road, for $16 50—and to Chicago for $18 50—which is a great reduction of fare.

Cutting off the Locks.—The Norfolk Argus says that the Secretary of the Navy has revived the obsolete regulation of ex-Secretary Badger, requiring all persons connected with the navy to wear locks of certain prescribed length, and to dispense altogether with the mustache, tuft and goatee.

OBITUARY.

Died at his residence near Clarksville in this county, on the evening of the 25th inst., after a short but painful illness, Wm. M. CLIFFORD, in the 39th year of his age.

In the death of this gentleman, we are again called upon to mourn over the loss of one of our most valuable citizens. Although from his modest and unobtrusive character, he was not generally known through the county, yet by his immediate neighbors he was much respected and admired for his correct moral deportment and gentlemanly behavior, and beloved by his friends for his kind and affectionate disposition, and sweet, charitable temper. He has left a wife and several children, with numerous relations and friends to mourn his untimely loss. Being a member of the Masonic fraternity, he was buried with the honors of Masonry. Devotedly attached to the principles inculcated by that order, he was ever ready to assist in alleviating the sufferings of humanity. And while we consign the body of our friend and brother to the cold and silent tomb, we trust and believe that his spirit has taken its flight to the God who made it, there like the loved Acacia [that glorious emblem of the immortality of the soul] to bloom on in eternal freshness and beauty.
